An equal partnership for mutual benefit

The 10th anniversary of the Twinning of Haworth and Machu Picchu has been celebrated in a spectacular way with a two day programme of events.

Arriving by steam train, our Peruvian guests, Ambassador to the UK Juan Carlos Gamarra, his wife Desiree Prinzessin Von Preussen, and chef Martin Morales experienced Yorkshire hospitality in return for their support in strengthening Haworth's link with Machu Picchu Pueblo, the community at the foot of the famous World Heritage site in Peru.

The highlight of the Friday evening event at the Bronte schoolrooms was the re-signing of the agreement via a live link up between Machu Picchu and Haworth.

John Steel from Fairtrade coffee company Cafe Direct spoke about the children of the coffee farmers who will be communicating with our children.

John Grogan MP spoke about the recently formed All Party Parliamentary Group with Peru, and the upcoming bi-centenary of Peru's Independence from Spain in 2021. Saturday, saw the schoolrooms packed for a demonstration by chef Martin of the classic Peruvian dish ceviche, after which he signed copies of his book. He spoke about his life and his involvement in the charity Amantani.

Thornwood brought a touch of the Andes to Church Street with an opportunity to pet and walk with alpacas whilst we enjoyed another mobile live link up speaking to our Peruvian counterparts, discussing the future possibilities. Musicians Kieffer and the Andean Beats transformed the hall with the mystical sounds reminiscent of the Amazon Rain Forest.

The collaboration between the many local supporters, businesses, District and Local Councils and the Peruvian Embassy made the weekend such a huge success, we are extremely grateful to each and every one who took part.

KEEP ROLLING

This time of year sees our valiant team of civil maintenance volunteers at the Keighley and Worth Valley Railway take 'possession' of the line and work their magic to replace, renew or repair the infrastructure that is vital to keep the wheels turning. We have increasingly challenging projects to tackle. This September we are addressing an issue that the Midland Railway first encountered over 100 years ago, with a groundworks project to stabilise the embankment near Mytholmes Tunnel and next spring we will be replacing a bridge between Ingrow and Damems. Whilst we are usually able to avoid disruption to the weekend's services, both of these projects result in us having to run the Railway in two sections, with a vintage 'bus service connecting the two. It means that the heritage diesel has been shuttling between Oakworth and Keighley whilst a steam service runs between Haworth and Oxenhope. It's also given us an opportunity to operate one of the small diesels that is usually confined to shunting duties at Oxenhope so it's a very different operation than normal. Whilst we keep the passengers conveyed, the maintenance volunteers are replacing trackwork at Damems junction as well as dealing with the embankment near Ebor Lane. Modern tools and techniques are used throughout, but we also make extensive use of more traditional methods and our very own steam-powered crane will come into play. Once the work is complete, we will revert to our more usual service, although it's only a couple of weeks until the Beer & Music Festival (I'm sure many or the Civil Maintenance gang will be taking a break and reflecting on their achievements over a pint or two selected from the choice of over 100 that will be on offer during the event!) and then Halloween specials. Full details, including advance booking options, are all available on the website. I daren't finish before reminding you that it's not that long until Christmas. I know the reminder is far too soon for many of us, a number of Santa dates are already full and tickets sold even faster than last year when we opened the booking in July so please do consider being a little festive now to avoid any disappointment. Finally, some sad news. With the Railway having been operated by the Society for over 50 years, it is inevitable that we have had to bid a very final 'right away' to many of the volunteers who have been a familiar sight on the Railway for several decades. Many of you will have travelled on the annual Carol Service and it's with great sadness that I learned that Canon Bruce Grainger passed away in September, quite suddenly and very peacefully. He had led the Carol train lessons and choir for over 30 years and my very best wishes to his direct as well as his wider church and choir families.

SHED Life

Evidence and research is growing and proves that being part of a social group, sharing and learning new skills is good for our mental wellbeing.

The Shed group – Oakworth started back at the beginning of the year and is open on a Friday morning 10 am to 12 noon at Oakworth Village Hall, welcoming both men and women.

The residents of Oakworth and the surrounding area have been quick to embrace the idea of The Shed and have now set up a Committee to oversee the running of the group.

The group is really welcoming and enthusiastic. As well as a programme of events there are ongoing projects for people to join in with such as; woodworking, crocheting, knitting and gardening. The Shed utilises the knowledge of community members who can share a skill and offers a place to learn something new or just pop in for a cuppa and a chat. Courses are also run from The Shed. October sees an Introduction to Patchwork Course and November an Art Course. The Shed Cliffe Castle -The Lion's Den has now opened its doors on a Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday 10am to 4 pm for Men. There is the opportunity to get involved in woodwork, horticulture, gardening, pond / fish management and socialise over a cup of tea. A cook confident 4 week course is planned, as well as a Women's Shed in the near future.

The Shed-Oakworth is planning an Open Day on Friday 15th November. 10 am to 12 noon.

THE FINE ART OF COMMUNITY by Lisa Holmes

I have been working as a photographer for 19 years, running my busy photography studio on Haworth Main Street providing a full range of photography services for the local community from Maternity and Newborn, to Family Photoshoots and business branding shoots.

Along side this for the last 11 years I have been a lecturer at Bradford College teaching their photography degree. I decided I wanted to give something back and connect with the community around me.

I've always been passionate about analogue photography and wanted to set up my own darkroom so when the opportunity came up to do just that at Keighley Creative Space I jumped at it. I find photography can be extremely cathartic and a great vessel to communicate things we sometimes find hard to talk about. I wanted show how photography has more to offer than selfies and funny animal pictures.

The darkroom is about spreading the joy and magic of analogue photography. We live in a very digital and fast paced world now, analogue photography is the complete opposite of that. It's all about slowing things down, thinking about what you want to communicate, enjoying the process and then having this wonderful tangible object at the end. That image will have more value than any digital snap on a phone or camera.

My community workshops and projects are all about allowing people to have fun with photography and using it to tell their stories through image making. Whether is a children's pin hole photography workshop, kids after school club or a community group's weekly meeting to work through emotions or life experience, photography is the perfect medium to allow them to express themselves without any fear of judgement. That is the wonderful thing about photography, there is no right or wrong, it's simply a personal vision.

Pennybank House, Haworth

Repurposing, recycling, and being mindful of resources are all core values at Pretty Penny, the new shop at the top of Haworth Main Street. Housed in the former Visitor Information Centre (the building has been renamed Pennybank House and it is being repurposed to support WVCR, Worth Valley Community Radio, and Upstairs at Pennybank, a multi-use meeting space) Pretty Penny occupies the ground floor, bringing ethical, sustainable retail to the mix. Proprietor Jill Ross, founder of Daisy Days and Cobbles & Clay, is delighted to have the opportunity to both support Pennybank House and create a place to showcase British talent. Jewellery by Hebden Bridge based Kate Rhodes, iconic raku pottery 'Stone Splitter' clocks by Ian Roberts, West Yorkshire Spinners country socks, produced down the road in Keighley; these are just some of the many British made items currently in stock at Pretty Penny this season. Additionally, fairly traded products that help to sustain communities in other parts of the world are for sale. For example, you will find The Original Roll-On Bracelet, from the Aid Through Trade brand, or earrings crafted from recycled computer circuit boards. Other eye catching items include reversible skirts from Zand Amsterdam made from surplus fabrics, high quality berets, beanies, scarves and gloves, and a fabulous range of 100% organic jute rugs, baskets, coasters and placemats.

If you are searching for the perfect greeting card or gift, Pretty Penny has you covered. Call in and see for yourself.

Open every day. Find us on:

BEHIND THE SCENES AT THE MUSEUM

'CHECKING OUT ME HISTORY': JOHN AGARD

Following an enjoyable visit to the Museum for Emily Brontë's bicentenary celebrations, we are delighted that John Agard, one of the most highly regarded poets in the UK, is returning to Haworth to read his work. He is a unique and energetic force whose poems have featured on the English GCSE syllabus since 2002 and his work has been described as 'a wonderful affirmation of life, in a language that is vital and joyous'. His performances are mesmerising, due in part to his captivating Anglo-Caribbean accent.

John Agard was born in 1949 and grew up in Georgetown, Guyana, then known as British Guiana. His love of language began in school where his favourite subjects were English, French and Latin. Early influences were eclectic: he recalls reading fairytales and Enid Blyton as a child, before discovering the humour of PG Wodehouse and the Mersey Sound poets Adrian Henri, Roger McGough and Brian Patten. He has fond memories of being an altar boy, and his Roman Catholic upbringing is evident in his poems. Another key influence that affected his love of words was BBC cricket commentary. In a 2013 newspaper interview, he recalled how 'In the same way that a young teenager today may dream about becoming a rapper, I used to love pretending to be a cricket commentator, like John Arlott. That's when it all came together.' He began his career as a teacher, and went on to work as a librarian, then a feature writer for the Guyana Sunday Chronicle, before moving to England in 1977, with his wife, the poet Grace Nichols.

Agard's poetry concerns itself with cultural differences and class divisions and he enjoys subverting racial stereotypes. He writes for adults and children, using humour and satire to great effect. His poem Half-Caste, which has been on the GCSE syllabus for a number of years, is one such example of this. The poem cleverly challenges the reader to consider the term "half-caste" and its associations with inferiority: "Consequently when I dream / I dream half-a-dream / an when moon begin to glow / I half-caste human being / cast half-a-shadow".

Humour is vital according to Agard, because it 'breaks down boundaries, it topples our self-importance, it connects people, and because it engages and entertains, it ultimately enlightens.' We can't wait to be engaged, entertained, and enlightened in equal measure by John Agard on November 2, so don't miss this opportunity to witness one of the UK's most mesmerising performers.

Diane Fare.

Transform your conservatory into a cosy living space

Millions of homes across the UK enjoy the added luxury of a conservatory, whether it's for entertaining, extra living space or simply enjoying the views of the garden. But older conservatories can come with drawbacks – more often than not they are too cold in the winter and too warm in the summer, meaning they are underused. But now that's all changing. UltraRoof380 is helping transform conservatories into beautiful, elegant spaces, complete with vaulted ceilings and full-length glass panels to let the light flood in. The roof has been developed specifically for owners wanting to reinvent a conservatory and turn it into a room that feels more like an extension. While conservatories bring in plenty of natural daylight, the UltraRoof380 provides the best of both worlds, allowing you to design a room with a solid roof but also the ability to include glazed sections, giving you privacy yet still providing plenty of daylight. Developed using UltraTile, the lightweight tile system is as near to the real thing as you can get. Available in three realistic tile colours, the UltraRoof380 looks as good on the outside as the inside. There's also zero upheaval. Expert fitters from Ploughcroft will have your old roof removed and your UltraRoof380 installed in no time—all you need to do is sit back and watch your transformation.

Yorkshire Loft Ladders, Quality You Can Trust

These days most homeowners suffer from a lack of storage space. So many precious items that need to be kept - but where to store it all? That's where Yorkshire Loft Ladders come in. The company, based locally, offers homeowners the opportunity to maximise their storage space with a loft ladder, 50 sq ft of boarding and a light all fully fitted in less than a day from just £277 + VAT. But it's not just the affordability of the package the company offers that makes Yorkshire Loft Ladders stand out as manager Mark Hodson explains: 'Our watchwords are Quality, Integrity and Value. Quality in the materials that we use for all our installations and the fact that all our loft packages are fitted by time served tradesman so our customers are assured of the best job. Integrity in that we will turn up at the time we say and make sure the house is spotless when we leave, and Value in that we offer our services at a price people can afford. Our business relies on referrals and we get a huge amount of our calls from people who have been referred to us by our existing customers - that simply wouldn't happen if we didn't adhere to our overriding principles.

At the end of the day the old adage that happy customers lead to more happy customers is true and we work hard to make that happen for every installation we carry out!

So, if you want to make use of your loft space, however big or small, call Warren on 0800 612 8359 and he'll be happy to pop round and give you a no obligation quote so you too can make use of your loft.
