High in the loft of Bridgehouse Mill, in the centre of the Worth Valley, is a specialist gift company quietly weaving its creative magic. Trimmed with Love is the result of an impressive textile heritage where quality, skill and craftsmanship lead the way.

loyal support of his wife, Norma. Norma continues her involvement while son Robin Wright leads and expands Wydean Weaving in a global marketplace.

This 21st century business meshes the best of handwoven craft with modern know-how and global sourcing to form a distinctive range of products while at the same time maintaining the unique ability to deliver highly personalised pieces.

Rosie Wright, Robin's daughter and Norma's granddaughter, joined the company in 2014. Rosie, a business graduate from Nottingham Trent University, adds a fresh approach and new skills to the stable.

With three generations on hand and a trifecta of tradition, innovation, and focus, the future looks bright and certainly Trimmed with Love for Wydean Weaving.

Intricately woven bracelets, hand beaded garters, multi faceted trim to embellish beautifully scented candles, napkin rings, key rings and cushions; these are all part of the gifts of distinction and luxury accessories that define Trimmed with Love's collection. The carefully designed range stands out in the multifaceted market for wedding accessories and special occasion gifts. It appeals to a discerning eye and is proudly British.

The Green Deal Factory Ltd step in at the last minute to save the 1940's weekend.

It's safe to say that the 1940's weekend has become the most popular event in the village and this year's is no different with over 40,000 people expected to attend the vintage gathering.

It has become a commercial success for local traders - where the whole village is turned over to the event, as the clock is turned back 75 years in celebration. But the annual event was days away from cancellation as the spiralling costs made it impossible for the committee to meaningfully run the popular weekend.

It was a local based business, The Green Deal Factory Ltd and its sister company Clever Energy Boilers that stepped into the breach at literally the 11th hour to help out and save the day with much needed funds and a sponsorship deal.

Green Deal Factory Ltd. is part of the Green Deal government backed incentive to offer low-income families 'eco grants' towards near high efficient gas boilers. Sister company, Clever Energy Boilers provides a similar service aimed at the wider general public offering easy pay monthly packages.

Nikki Cunell, one of the organising committee members, said: 'We're absolutely delighted that this year's 1940's weekend has been saved. It's brilliant that Paul Gehvert and Green Deal Factory agreed to do this. We really appreciate that his company has come forward.'

'What a fabulous event, to sponsor' said Green Deal Factory's Paul Gehvert. 'I live in the village and have always gone to sample the atmosphere, so this is a chance to really get involved and provide support for what is a local showcase with a national reputation'. Not only that we have significantly contributed to the local economy as the 3 days brings in a considerable amount of much needed revenue to local businesses.

'We are always keen to sponsor events and organisations which are local to us and our customers and the Haworth 1940's weekend is a great advertisement for the area'.

Look out for both The Green Deal Factory Ltd. and Clever Energy Boilers tents, the vans and stands will be onsite throughout the weekend. For more details you can visit www.thegreendealfactory.co.uk.

Dame Vera Lynn, the Forces sweetheart, has given her support to the Haworth 1940's weekend with 70 signed specially commissioned limited edition prints by artist, John Francis, costing £200 each. Unsigned prints are £20, available at Firth's Boutique in Haworth

WELCOME TO THE BULL

The Stitch Society* is a piece of crafting heaven based in the old textile mill that is Keighley Business Centre. For sometime now The Stitch Society* has been inspiring stitchers, makers and menders to share their knowledge and skills with each other in their airy studio.

Continuing their mission to share their combined knowledge, Fiona Drake and Charlotte Meek, the founding members of The Stitch Society*, will be appearing at 74 Main Street, Haworth for two weeks only, from the 17th until 30th April.

With their lighthearted and informative approach to teaching, Fiona and Charlotte ensure that The Stitch Society* workshops include all materials, instructions and tools – often served with a slice of cake and lashings of tea. The Spring programme includes workshops as diverse as Felted Flowers, Weaving and Learning to Spin. There will be an opportunity to sample a range of mini workshops, which will be running over the two weekends, including needle felting, knitting, crochet and sewing.

Gaining notoriety for their expertise, both locally and nationally, their work includes being featured on the Radio 4 website with their quirky interpretation of The Shipping Forecast, as part of the Radio 4 Loves Knitting Day; this now famous piece will be on display in the shop.

Part of The Stitch Society* philosophy is to provide simple, effective tools and kits to enhance the crafting experience; such as The Stylish Tin of Sewing Tools and The Helpful Tin of Knitting Tools; all this loveliness and more will be available in the shop.

Encouraging others to share their skills and become part of The Stitch Society* community of Friends has lead to a devoted following, who regularly attend the Friday morning Knit & Stitch* group, which will be happening in the shop on the 17th and 24th April, from 10 until 12, everyone is welcome to join us.

Full details of all the mini workshops are available on our website at www.thestitchsociety.com.

Call in or email hello@thestitchsociety.com to reserve your place.

For readers of this magazine, Fiona and Charlotte are offering a 25% discount on any two workshops booked together. Just bring this magazine with you to claim the discount.

News update from MATERIAL WORTH INTERIORS...

The new spring ranges are arriving now from our main fabric and wallpaper companies.

This year from HARLEQUIN are amazing botanical and tropical inspired digital prints on linen and viscose fabrics and beautiful plush velvets.

on the premises to the exact style and size to fit your home, so much better and more personalised than the regular imported mass produced alternatives. Most of our fabrics and wallpapers are actually printed in the UK, so you really would be supporting British industries.

We also have some talented friends who work with us to add to the services we can offer; Margo who can re-upholster smaller pieces of furniture and advise you on suitable fabrics, Anne who can alter or repair your clothes and Sally who can make you co-ordinating lamp shades. Samples of their work are on show at MATERIAL WORTH. There's also original paintings and ceramics by Yorkshire based artists.

As well as all this we have massive display of curtain poles and tie backs, all kinds of blinds samples on display which can be made especially for you.

Hope to see you soon!

The colours are turquoise, fuchsia pink, greens and purples, all rich strong colours, as well as more subtle shades of silver and burnt orange, some with pearlised finishes. There's also new ranges for all you country style lovers, with beautiful fresh prints of all manner of flora and fauna from VOYAGE with co-ordinating wool and linen checks and stripes, which look so at home in our Pennine cottages and farmhouses.

So come along to our lovely little showrooms at Crossroads and let Gill or Catriona help you to choose something special to make your home fabulous. Our team can make your curtains, Roman blinds and cushions

A PASSION FOR TEACHING

At Kip McGrath Education Centres

The first Kip McGrath Education Centre opened its doors in Australia 36 years ago. Founded by school teachers Kip and Dug McGrath, that first tutoring centre has grown since then into a global franchise network of 300 tutoring centres owned and operated by qualified and experienced teachers who have a common motivation - a passion for teaching.

Offering tutoring to children from Pre-school through to Year 13 in reading, spelling, comprehension, English and maths, our 300 centres worldwide can be found in both metropolitan and regional locations. While the primary focus is to improve or extend a child's learning outcomes, the real value in attending a Kip McGrath Educational Centre is the teachers that tutor at each centre. For our tutors teaching is not a job - it's a vocation. Delivering a curriculum that is proven, each child is assessed and a programme is written for that child based on their individual needs.

Nothing inspires a Kip McGrath tutor more than a smile from a child who'll rally 'give it! To watch a child suddenly start to enjoy learning and develop a confidence in their abilities naturally translates into better results at school. So if you are looking for a tutoring experience that will improve your child's confidence, encourage them to enjoy learning and help them improve or extend their literacy and numeracy, contact your local Kip McGrath Educational Centre today.

Behind the Scenes at the Museum

The Brontë Parsonage Museum has just launched its new contemporary arts programme highlighting some of the events and exhibitions taking place at the Parsonage between now and the autumn. In the next instalment of People at the Parsonage, we meet Arts Officer Jenna Holmes to tell us more.

Tell us a little about yourself:

Well, I've always loved history, literature and art so the contemporary arts programme is a dream job for me! I live in Ilkley and have recently come back to work part-time after having my little boy in 2013.

How long have you worked at the Museum?

I've been here since late 2007 and the time has flown by, I love working at the Museum and the wide variety of things that entails. Because we are a small team we work closely and get involved in lots of different areas. I'm also very privileged to meet an amazing mix of writers and artists who visit Haworth as part of our programme.

Tell us about a typical day:

A lot of my job is desk based - so I am contacting publishers or agents and arranging events, from booking the speaker and all of their arrangements to printing flyers and selling tickets. But the most intriguing work for me is the projects with contemporary artists, as they allow me to delve into the collection and discover new things. I'm often to be found pestering our Collections team with strange queries, such as "Do we know how much rainfall there was in Haworth in 1848?", "Would it be OK if I hung some paper moths from Mr Brontë's bed?" or "What is the circumference of the tree in the garden?" I'm sure they often hide when they see me coming.

What's your favourite piece in the collection?

That's a difficult question as there are many fascinating items. I'm really drawn to the clothes and textiles and although there are some very charming delicate things, I also can't help loving the Brontës' stockings - they are thick, woolly and pretty gruesome. The Brontës would have been horrified that we have them on display I am sure. They are all heavily darned, Charlotte's very neatly and Emily's very messily - she obviously had better things to do!

And your favourite Brontë novel?

That is tricky, but if I could only take one to a desert island, I probably would choose 'Wuthering Heights' over 'Jane Eyre', though of course I love them both.

Anything else you'd like to tell us?

I'm really pleased our new programme has been released and I hope local audiences will be interested in our event with Will Atkins on 17 April. Will stayed in Stanbury when he was writing part of his book 'The Moor' and discusses the importance that places such as Top Withens hold in our literary imagination. Anyone interested in the history and romance of the moors and the local landscape should definitely come along to hear more!

The Museum is open daily. Adult admission is £7.50, with concessions available.

Peru Update

Following the twinning of Haworth with Machu Picchu, a link was made with the school in the next nearest town in the Sacred Valley.

Work began with the provision of support to develop their school kitchen which a year ago was in a sorry state – with no decent cooking or washing up facilities, storage or fridge, and a lack of utensils and pans.

The first stage was an inventory of items to be purchased, supplied quickly using funds raised here: they now have a brand new fridge freezer, adequate large cooking pots for food for the 200 children who attend, new utensils and a commercial liquidiser for soups and juices. The second stage involved renovating the cooker by building a chimney and rebuilding the range, the installation of new washing up facilities, and provision of a hand-wash area for the children. The funds have been raised both by individual donations and with the support of Cobbles and Clay Open Mic.

The school will now act as a hub to support the provision of seven more kitchens in the highland communities where poverty and malnutrition is even more extreme, and connections are being made with Haworth Primary School.

Keighley & Worth Valley Railway

We need your help! We are always looking for volunteers to help us operate the railway, joining our team of well-trained and qualified members of the Society, whether it be to get involved in helping to restore and operate the locomotives, to help maintain the track, to act as Guard on the trains or, any of another operational roles, to sell and check tickets. However, we are also very keen to welcome new volunteers to help us behind the scenes where we manage the finances of the railway and deal with the administration of the operation. We would welcome in particular those with experience of administering businesses like ours, which has a volunteer workforce of nearly 500. In addition, we are constantly looking for innovative ways to fund raise, and are very keen to hear from those who would be able to work with our Strategy and Finance directors as they seek to help raise funds, for example to pay the estimated £300k+ for our next locomotive overhaul, and to help us progress a number of key projects across the railway.

Wales and to the Severn Valley Railway in the West Midlands. We recently enjoyed a very successful 'home fleet' Steam Spectacular weekend at which we enjoyed showcasing our resident locomotives, with double-headed and demonstration freight trains, drawing many compliments from and some great photographs by our visitors.

We have been working hard to appeal to our wide range of visitors. For example, if you can't wait until the weekend or school holidays to travel, this year we have been trialling running our Diesel Rail Bus every Wednesday, which has helped us accommodate school parties, but also a number of other passengers who get to enjoy the view of the line afforded by the windows right at the front and back of the vehicle. For those that prefer to wait until the weekend (or the school holidays), we have started detailing which real ales should be available on the on-train buffet, so do check the website for the 'Real Ale Roster.' If diesel traction is your preference, we plan to operate a diesel service on the second Saturday of each month from April to October (a steam service will also be operating). Details of trains and times can be found on the website, and all planned services are subject to the vagaries and challenges of operating heritage trains, so do please check the site for the latest news.

Please do consider joining our volunteer team by contacting us via the website or me directly, and, as ever, do please get in touch if you have any comments or suggestions.

Queensbury Kitchens Ltd.

Queensbury kitchens started trading around 25 years ago from a small showroom on the high street in Queensbury supplying kitchens and Bedrooms to local contractors and public around the Bradford and Halifax areas.

About ten years ago we moved to larger premises and started to move into supplying bathrooms, bedrooms & sliding wardrobes as well. Always on the lookout for new improved products at the most competitive prices we found the opportunity to move into kitchen door replacement and as more advances were being made in the manufacturing process high quality made to measure kitchen doors became available. Over the last couple of years vinyl manufactures have also been able to produce some amazing finishes and vibrant colours to really make kitchen designs come alive.

On Tuesday 17th March Sarah Tapey from Martin House came to Worth Valley weekly meeting, so members could present her with a cheque.

Members of Worth Valley Young Farmers Club have raised £728 for Martin House Hospice over the past year.

This was raised by the club hosting their annual event, the pram push, on August bank holiday. Teams from across the Craven district take part every year and this year saw one of the highest turnouts to date. Dressed in a variety of costumes including the characters of toy story, a group of Romans complete with chariot, and a 6 pack of human beer bottles travelled between the pubs of Haworth collecting money for Martins House. The costumes and hand built prams proved popular among the banks holiday tourists. Catherine Bishop Social Secretary of the club stated that "This is the most we have raised for a charity over the years, and Martin House Hospice is such a fantastic charity"

In October the club held there annual presentation dinner where members played games to raise even more money for Martin House. Catherine Bishop explained that "This was something different to raise money, the members loved it and it turned out to be a great addition to the evening".
