Craig Dyson

Rochester House Gallery

17 Main St. Haworth 10-5 Thurs-Mon

Since opening Rochester House Gallery in March this year, Kate Walker, owner and art enthusiast, has managed to attract artists and collectors to Haworth. It is Kate's passion for the creative spirit that has spurred her on to provide a space for artists and collectors amidst the tearooms, B&Bs and quaint shops that currently fill the cobbled main street in the village. "I want to create a unique place where everyone feels welcome. Art should be accessible to all. You don't have to know anything about it; just come along and have a look at the wonderful talent and be inspired!"

Chris Chaplin

At Rochester House Gallery there is something for everyone; with its wide variety of medium on sale, the choice is excellent; from photography, to painting, sculpture and graphic arts. The artists represented are also from a full spectrum, there are established painters like Judith Levin and local painters like Abigail Rhodes, Ruth Parker and Ellie Robertson sharing gallery space with new "ones to watch" like sculptor Craig Dyson.

If a customer likes a particular artist but doesn't find exactly what they are looking for, Kate can facilitate a commissioned piece to suit the client's brief.

Local talent is encouraged and supported; Rochester House Gallery is always pleased to meet artists who are looking for a space to display and sell their work or just simply someone to talk to about their work.

Looking at the months ahead, plans are in action for a larger gallery space with the intention of putting on one man shows and including more handmade crafts for sale. Kate is also considering the Own Art scheme devised by the Arts Council to make art affordable for all with 0%APR and manageable payments... Watch this space! Rochester House Gallery 648832, rochesterhousegallery@live.co.uk
