As we turn the page on a new year, February feels like a quieter kind of beginning. The rush of January has eased, routines are settling, and there's a little more space to look ahead with clarity. This first edition of 2026 brings with it familiar voices, local business features, and practical inspiration to carry you through the month ahead. I can especially recommend the Keema Shepherd's Pie recipe on page 26; it really is a delicious and comforting dish. You also have a choice of excellent local butchers to choose from in these pages.

We celebrate our 20th year trading this year and reflect on the ups and downs, though, to be fair, it has been a privilege and mostly a lot of good fun. We are really grateful to everyone for the support and you can read more inside on pages 4 and 5.

Our Community Pages have had a tidy-up; see what you think. Be well and have a great February.

Twenty Years of Community, Trust, and Local Enterprise

Editor, Liz Barker, in 2006, holding the first edition of the Worth Valley Mag.

In 2026, Worth Valley Mag marks its twentieth year of publication. It is a milestone worth pausing for, not out of nostalgia, but out of respect for what sustained, local endeavour can achieve over time. Since 2006, our purpose has been simple: to connect people to their place, and to help local businesses, organisations, and community life remain visible, viable, and valued. Over two decades, Worth Valley Mag, alongside its sister title, Aire Valley Mag, has supported well over 5,000 local businesses, from sole traders starting out to established employers providing livelihoods for others. Many have advertised with us for years; some for the full twenty. Others came, grew, adapted, and moved on. All were part of the local economic ecosystem. This magazine is, and has always been, a for-profit business. It has to be. Sustainability matters. Printers must be paid, distribution organised, and people employed. But profitability has never been our primary driver. Our priorities have been sustainability, fairness, and added value for readers, advertisers, and the wider community. That commitment shows up in practical ways. We pay local people to deliver the magazine, sustaining a 50-plus distribution team over the years ~ often providing first jobs, last jobs, and reliable local income. We keep advertising affordable so that small and micro-businesses are not priced out. We curate carefully, prioritising credibility and contribution over volume. And we reinvest time and energy into local life, supporting charities such as Manorlands Hospice, championing Fairtrade and ethical trade, hosting forums, charring partnerships, and working alongside civic, cultural, faith, and visitor-economy organisations. In a world that has become increasingly noisy, fragmented, and transactional, trust has become a rare currency. Social media and digital platforms promise reach at ever-lower cost, but community consent cannot be bought cheaply. It is earned slowly by showing up, being accountable, and standing alongside the people you serve. The Worth and Aire Valley magazines have never existed at arm's length. We stand shoulder to shoulder in the streets, around café counters and kitchen tables, as well as in local boardrooms. We use the businesses we feature. We attend local churches and events, belong to the local gym, frequent Keighley Picture House, support independent shops. Our children have gone to local schools. We love that we can still have milk delivered in glass bottles on the doorstep and buy eggs from a roadside stall. The past twenty years have not been without challenge. Economic shifts, rising costs, personal illness, and the Covid years tested every assumption. What carried the magazine through was not scale or speed, but relationships, a committed core team, loyal advertisers, engaged readers, and a shared belief that local still matters. As we look ahead, new technologies will continue to change how media and business operate. Our task is not to resist change, but to use it wisely, improving what we do while protecting the human touch that has always been our foundation. We enter our twentieth year grateful, proud, and attentive. Grateful for the trust placed in us. Proud of the quiet impact made over time. Attentive to the responsibility that comes with being part of a community's daily life. We have always known this is a special place. It is heartening to see the wider world catching up, with recent coverage from Condé Nast and The Guardian, and renewed international attention ahead of a major Hollywood Wuthering Heights release. We hope the district benefits from the spotlight. As with the 2014 Tour de France Grand Départ, and the 2025 City of Culture, we will welcome the attention while remaining grounded, rooted, and true to everyday community life. Thank you to everyone who has read, delivered, advertised, collaborated, and believed in us. The Worth & Aire Valley Magazines exist as a result of consistent local support, careful stewardship, and a collective preference for sustainability, integrity, and community value over noise.

A Fresh Year, A Thoughtful New Beginning

As the New Year begins, many of us take time to reflect and set intentions for the months ahead. It can also be a helpful opportunity to review our personal and financial affairs, or simply check that the arrangements we already have in place still reflect what matters most to us.

Putting these plans in order can include making a Lasting Power of Attorney for property and financial affairs and/or health and welfare. A Lasting Power of Attorney operates during your lifetime and allows you to choose who you trust to assist with decisions about your finances or wellbeing if the need arises in the future. Having this in place can bring reassurance and clarity about who will be there to support you. It may also be a good time to make a Will, or to review an existing one, to ensure it accurately reflects your wishes. A Will allows you to appoint Executors to manage your affairs after death, decide who will benefit from your estate and in what proportions, and set out whether gifts are made outright or held in trust. You can also record your wishes regarding the care of your children and pets. Making a Will provides certainty and peace of mind about the future.

Whether it's protecting your loved ones, safeguarding what you leave behind, or ensuring your legacy lives on, taking a moment to plan now can offer peace of mind today and security for tomorrow.

If you would like support in putting your affairs in order—through wills, trusts, estate planning or powers of attorney—our dedicated team at Walker Foster Solicitors are here to help. We provide expert legal advice built on knowledge and years of experience.

Say you saw it in the Worth Valley Mag!

A belated Happy New Year from everyone at the Keighley & Worth Valley Railway and what an exciting year we have ahead of us along the Worth Valley.

Before looking forward, it's worth pausing to reflect on what a memorable 2025 it was for the railway. My sincere thanks go to everyone who travelled with us during the year, whether for a quiet countryside journey, a special event, or one of our major highlights. We were proud to be involved with Bradford 2025 City of Culture, welcoming visitors travelling to experience The Railway Children in the very landscape that inspired the story. We rounded off the year in tremendous style with our sell-out festive events, which once again showed the enduring appeal of steam railways for families and enthusiasts alike.

The year ended on a real high note with the transformation of our Water Tower into a new Visitor Centre being recognised nationally. The project was awarded the Greater Anglia Volunteers' Award at the 2025 National Railway Heritage Awards, a fantastic achievement and a testament to the dedication, skill, and sheer hard work of our volunteer teams.

Looking ahead, trains will be running every weekend throughout the year, supported by a regular and varied programme of events. We begin with daily services during the February Half Term from 14 to 22 February, followed by our popular Mother's Day Special, featuring a round trip on the railway and a two-course meal at The Old Parcels Office. One of the highlights of the spring will be our four-day Steam Gala Extravaganza from 19 to 22 March, which will feature visiting locomotives 5029 Nunney Castle and 34046 Braunton, alongside our home fleet.

Alongside these events, we are also turning our attention to the next round of essential maintenance and overhaul work. Planned projects include track renewals, building repairs, and the many behind-the-scenes tasks required to keep a 150-plus-year-old railway operating safely and reliably. This is a never-ending commitment, demanding both significant funding and countless volunteer hours, with months of planning needed to deliver each project.

Charity No 1080245

Paula loves reading, but an eye condition has made what was once a relaxing pastime frustrating. Then a friend mentioned Sight Airedale, a local charity based in Keighley. There, she tried a device that let her read electronic books with adjustable text size, and an app that read printed materials aloud.

Sight Airedale is a local independent charity supporting people across Keighley, Bingley, Skipton, Cross Hills, Silsden and Ilkley. They help people who are blind or partially sighted, or who have eye conditions such as macular degeneration, glaucoma or diabetic retinopathy that make reading standard text difficult, even with glasses.

Paula visited the Daily Living Shop at 31 Scott Street, Keighley (behind the library). She tried products designed to make life with sight loss easier, including a talking Air Fryer, and received private advice on issues such as lighting. She also tried a USB Talking Book player, giving her access to the charity's library of over 2,000 titles. Books are posted to her on a USB drive, listened to, then returned free of charge. Staff can also choose books for her based on favourite authors. The charity's Technology Service helped her use her laptop by suggesting a large-key keyboard and simple setting changes. She later watched a tutorial on the charity's YouTube channel about screen magnifier software.

The Keighley Social Centre, held at Sight Airedale on the first and third Thursdays of the month, gives Paula support from others with sight loss. Having someone say, "I get that too," really helps.

Inset is the full complement of the Taylored Dental Care Clinical Team with Carl and Amy seated in the foreground.

Taylored Dental Care is a private dental practice with a clear focus: helping nervous and phobic patients overcome their fear of the dentist. We believe nobody should have to suffer through dental treatment, and our mission is to provide calm, compassionate dentistry, particularly for those who have avoided care due to fear or trauma.

Dr Carl Taylor qualified from the University of Leeds in 2002. During seven years working in the NHS, he saw first-hand how many people struggled with dental anxiety, shaping his commitment to creating a practice where patients feel safe, respected and in control. In 2009, he opened our first practice on Cavendish Street in Keighley, later expanding to practices in Idle and Wibsey.

We offer a full range of services, from routine check-ups and hygiene appointments to advanced treatments including implants, “Dentures In A Day” and sedation for highly anxious patients. We pride ourselves on exceptional dentistry, leading technology and genuinely tailored care.

In November 2025, we celebrated 16 years in Keighley and began a new chapter by relocating to our fully renovated, state-of-the-art practice on Airedale Road.

Converted from the former Santoni Italian restaurant, the new premises feature four modern surgeries and enable us to deliver innovative treatments such as “Dentures in a Day” and “Implants in a Day.” Innovation plays a vital role in our patient experience. Pain-free injections, digital scanners and patient-control clickers allow patients to pause treatment whenever needed, helping them feel safe and in control. Supporting nervous and phobic patients has always been at the heart of what we do, and their feedback is our greatest measure of success.

“Thank you to each and every one of you who have changed my life. I can now smile brightly and say dental anxiety is a thing of the past.” — Wendy Brown

We are proud winners of ‘Treatment of Nervous Patients – North’ at the Private Dentistry Awards in both 2024 and 2025, and were also honoured with ‘Practice of the Year – North East’ and ‘Clinical Dental Technician of the Year’ for Matthew Varley. Dental anxiety is real, and we are here to help break that cycle. Our ethos is simple: Dentistry For Those Who Don’t Like Dentists, delivered with care, empathy and respect. (See page 19 for our contact details).

Denture Problems Look no further...

Who are we?

Our Keighley Denture Expert is Matthew Varley (Dip CDT RCS)

Matthew Varley is the partner and Managing Director of My Denture

Clinics, here he works as a Clinical Dental Technician (Dip CDT RCS).

Matt was born and raised in Pudsey, where he met his wife Angela Varley at school. They have 2 sons; Ray and Austin, he hopes one day they will follow him into the dental profession and share in his passion for dentistry.

Within his 23 years of experience, Matt has changed the lives and smiles of many, some of which are during one day implant immediate loading cases, and same day smiles, which he specialises in. The regular accolades received from clients and patients alike are testament to his passion for his work. Matt has a keen eye for detail and endeavours to provide the best care possible. Matthew completed his dental technology qualification at Leeds Dental Institute, he finished first in his class achieving distinctions throughout and was awarded overall best student and the acclaimed technical achievement award.

Matthew Varley started his journey as a Registered Dental Technician (RDT), however after 23 years experience working as a RDT in highly acclaimed laboratories, Matt made the decision in 2018 to set up his own business alongside fellow business partner Joseph O'Reilly.

Matt also returned to university to further his dental knowledge and become a Clinical Dental Technician, receiving the prestigious royal college of surgeons (Dip CDT RCS).

How can we help you?

Technology has moved on massively over the last few years as far as dentures are concerned. The fact is, you don't have to suffer badly designed or ill fitting dentures anymore.

However, replacing your teeth is more than trusting someone with your smile. Your appearance and the way people perceive you is also at stake.

Matt creates dentures which can offer the dual effect of restoring your smile and correcting the proportions of your face.

He can add volume to your lower face and upper lip region to achieve a more natural, youthful look. Everyone is different, so your dentures are influenced by your age, personality and gender to ensure they look perfectly natural. Matt will discuss your individual needs and the best choices available before providing you with the information you require to determine what is right for you.

The smallest alteration can make the biggest change and Matt is committed to providing the highest level of care, quality materials and the latest digital technology to achieve the best results for you.

Matt's ambition is also his craft, creating lifelike smiles through dentures and implant supported prosthesis.

Everybody has the right to smile!

*Would you like to be more confident?
Do you suffer from denture discomfort?
Loose or ill-fitting dentures?
Afraid to smile?*

With our clinical denture expert Matthew Varley, who has restored thousands of smiles - you're sure to feel more confident and be you again.

From Frustration to Clarity

One of our lovely transformation cases. Patient LS struggled for years. Aesthetics were compromised along with facial support looking very strained. With our Diamond range of dentures, aesthetics were restored with full facial support in the correct position.

*"I have finally got my confidence back,
I never imagined I could smile like this.
Thank you My Denture Clinic"*

BEHIND THE SCENES AT THE MUSEUM

Happy New Year from everyone at the Brontë Parsonage Museum! We're well underway with our collection cleaning and conservation work in the Museum right now. Staff are busy going through our collection stores and taking care of the lesser seen items, and now as we approach our reopening, they'll be busy getting the rooms ready and setting up our brand-new exhibition.

2026 is set to be an incredible year for Brontë enthusiasts, with the release of the brand-new Wuthering Heights adaptation by award-winning director Emerald Fennell. Everyone at the museum is very excited about this adaptation, and we can't wait to welcome new Brontë fans when we reopen in February!

We're also excited to finally open this year's exhibition, The Colonial Brontës.

The Brontë children were avid readers, and much of their childhood reading contained the colonial ideas of the time which inspired their earliest writing.

The latest adaptation of Emily Brontë's

Wuthering Heights has resurrected longstanding discussions about colonialism, particularly debates about Heathcliff's racial identity. This exhibition provides resonant historical details about people of African descent who worked in Yorkshire between 1771—the date Emily's story reaches back to—and the author's death in 1848. You can come along to see the exhibition when we reopen our doors on Wednesday 4 February, we'd love to see you there! Plus, we've got a whole programme of exciting events coming up, including fascinating Thursday Talks by Brontë experts, and online Brontë Lounge sessions for those of you who can't reach us in person! Find out more about the new season at the Museum over on the 'What's on' page of our website, bronte.org.uk.

Remember, local residents enjoy concessionary prices and free entry to Thursday Talks, children go free, and you can return time and again on your ticket for twelve months at the Museum – including admission to our 'free with entry' events!

Keema Shepherd's Pie

by Martin Lingard

Just before Christmas, I met a friend for lunch in Leeds. I ordered a shepherd's pie made with lamb keema curry, with lentils mashed into the potato topping. It was absolutely delicious. This is my attempt at recreating it, and I hope you enjoy it as much as I do. I like to serve it with a homemade tomato sauce, but gravy works just as well. It's filling, comforting, and wonderfully warming on a cold winter's evening.

Ingredients (serves 4)

For the filling

- 3 tablespoons sunflower oil
- 1 medium onion, peeled and chopped
- 6 garlic cloves, peeled and finely chopped
- 1 thumb-length piece of fresh ginger, peeled and grated
- 1 green chilli, finely chopped
- 1 teaspoon ground cumin
- 1 teaspoon ground coriander
- ¼ teaspoon chilli powder
- 750g minced lamb
- 300ml water
- 300g frozen peas
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 teaspoon garam masala

For the mash topping

- 200g red split lentils, rinsed
- 500ml water

- 2 slices of fresh ginger, about the thickness of a £1 coin
- ½ teaspoon ground turmeric
- 750g floury potatoes, peeled and cut into large chunks
- 75g butter, and Salt, to taste

Method

Start with the filling. Heat the oil in a large frying or sauté pan and add the onion. Fry, stirring often, until it begins to colour, then add the garlic. Stir for a minute or two before adding the grated ginger, green chilli, cumin, coriander, and chilli powder. Give everything a quick stir, then add the lamb. Fry, stirring frequently, until browned, then pour in the water. Bring to a gentle simmer, reduce the heat to its lowest setting, cover, and cook slowly for 30 minutes. Add the peas, lemon juice, and garam masala. Cook uncovered until almost all the liquid has evaporated and the peas are tender. Turn off the heat and set aside. Next, put the lentils into a saucepan, cover with the water, and bring to a simmer, skimming off any scum that rises to the surface. Add the sliced ginger and turmeric, then simmer gently, uncovered, for 20–30 minutes, stirring occasionally, until the lentils are fully cooked. You're aiming for a thick, porridge-like consistency. Once cooked, remove and discard the ginger slices. While the lentils are cooking, bring a large pan of salted water to the boil and add the potatoes. Boil for around 20 minutes, until tender, then drain and mash well with the butter. Stir in the lentil mixture, mix thoroughly, and season to taste with salt. Finally, preheat the oven to 180°C. Assemble the pie as you would a traditional cottage pie: spoon the lamb filling into a suitably sized ovenproof dish, top with the potato and lentil mash, and level using the back of a fork. Bake for 20–30 minutes, until the topping is golden and lightly crisped.

Yorkshire Loft Ladders, Quality You Can Trust

These days most homeowners suffer from a lack of storage space. So many precious items that need to be kept - but where to store it all? That's where Yorkshire Loft Ladders come in. The company, based locally, offers homeowners the opportunity to maximise their storage space with a loft ladder, 50 sq ft of boarding and a light all fully fitted in less than a day from just £277 + VAT. But it's not just the affordability of the package the company offers that makes Yorkshire Loft Ladders stand out as manager Mark Hodson explains: 'Our watchwords are Quality, Integrity and Value. Quality in the materials that we use for all our installations and the fact that all our loft packages are fitted by time served tradesman so our customers are assured of the best job. Integrity in that we will turn up at the time we say and make sure the house is spotless when we leave, and Value in that we offer our services at a price people can afford. Our business relies on referrals and we get a huge amount of our calls from people who have been referred to us by our existing customers - that simply wouldn't happen if we didn't adhere to our overriding principles.

At the end of the day the old adage that happy customers lead to more happy customers is true and we work hard to make that happen for every installation we carry out!

So, if you want to make use of your loft space, however big or small, call Warren on 0800 612 8359 and he'll be happy to pop round and give you a no obligation quote so you too can make use of your loft.
